Dedication

This man is sometimes tough, but always demanding. He believes strongly in discipline, but he motivates his players by instilling in them, pride, not fear. His leadership and hard work will always be remembered at Swain. We, the 1968 RIDGERUNNER staff dedicate this annual to Coach Carroll Wright, Jr.

1. Pride

2. Desire

3. Dedication

4. 100 Per Cent Effort

Class History

Most of us seniors have been waiting about 18 years for this year to come around. Now that it is here, it seems that we could wait 18 more just to relive the experiences we have had at Swain.

In the fall of 1964, former 8th grade students from Alarka, Almond, Bryson City, and Whittier came to the “big brick building” atop the hill for their first dose of high school. As freshmen, we wandered around in a daze, but managed to gain a little respect when we took first place for the Homecoming Displays.

The thing that made us happiest at the beginning of our sophomore year was the fact that we were no longer freshmen. Toward the end of the year, we all relaxed and began to enjoy the beauty of nature; rather than having to pluck it, run home and identify it, and then look up the scientific name. During Move-up Day exercises our class was honored with the presentation of the School Spirit Trophy (well, it's the thought that counts anyway).

Our first concern as Juniors was to pass U.S. History. After we fell into the “Wright” groove, we found it was time to start thinking about the Junior-Senior Prom. With a lot of toil and hard work, we finally managed to get everything finished about 30 minutes prior to the opening dance. Tired as we were, we all enjoyed the evening at the Oriental Gardens.

Our Senior year was marked with success from the beginning when we hit an all-time high with our magazine sales (in Swain County, that is). We were on top of the world when our class rings came, but after they began to feel natural on our fingers, we started looking ahead to the Washington trip.

Naturally we feel we have the best class in school — just as all classes before us have felt, and probably all classes after us will feel. But due to our thinking like this, we will never forget all the friends and experiences at Ole Swain High.
